Brief

The developer needed cast stone architectural detailing to complement the existing local architecture for two large-scale developments, which include a range of traditional two and three-storey homes, town houses and more contemporary apartments over garages.

Solution

Bradstone was able to work with Bovis Homes and their design team to provide a range of cast stone units that were manufactured to Bovis' specific requirements.

Bradstone Cast Stone architectural dressings provide a comprehensive range of beautifully crafted components for the detailing of stone, render and brick-built buildings, both traditional and modern. Bradstone has a wide range of stock items available in the Bathstone shade, as well as the ability to provide made-to-order and purpose-made components in a variety of shades.

"We chose to use Bradstone's Cast Stone on our developments in Swindon because of the structural quality and aesthetic nature of the product. Bradstone provides quality at a very competitive price."

Ruth McDonagh, Bovis Homes
